

SECRETARY OF THE AIR FORCE

WASHINGTON

Airmen and Guardians,

Serving you and your families as the Acting Secretary of the Air Force these last six months has been the honor of a lifetime. Our Department has proven we will continue to accelerate change across the Air Force and Space Force while defending democracy and protecting our Nation.

I am in constant awe of your incredible work and professionalism – you have made our team stronger and more capable than ever. The Department of the Air Force proved a global pandemic could not shake our resolve to innovate, defend, and protect. America is grateful for your service, and I am honored to have served by your side.

Aim High and Semper Supra!
